

App. No. 10/708,844

RECEIVED
CENTRAL FAX CENTER
MAR 13 2008

In the Claims:

1-17 (cancelled)

18. (new) A process for combining and sending of invoices comprising: having a webbased system which contacts, logs in to using stored passwords and retrieves invoice information and name and address information from a plurality of other websites where said information is transferred back to said system where said system uses the information to print out an invoice based on said invoice information where a user can log on to said system and view said invoices where said system has an automated and half automated method for printing labels.

19. (new) A process according to claim 18 further comprising having a plurality of users logging on to said system to print out on invoice based on said invoice information.

20. (new) A process according to claim 18 in which said users register on said system.

21. (new) A process according to claim 18 in which said users selects a range of invoices to be processed.

22. (new) A process according to claim 18 in which said system uses the information produces a file in comma delimited format.

23. (new) A process according to claim 18 in which said system uses the information to print mailing labels.